HISTORIC STEAKHOUSE LAUNCHES BUSINESS LUNCH AND BRUNCH

After 39 years of legendary dinner service, Cavalryman Supper Club kicks off daily lunch and Sunday brunch including daily fresh local salad bar

November 19, 2009, Laramie, WY – The Cavalryman Supper Club (the “Cav”) announced today that it will begin serving lunch on Sunday, November 22. As part of the launch, the restaurant will adjust its name to The Cav at Ft. Sanders in order to recognize simultaneously its broader service offerings and its extraordinary, historic setting. It will also expand its operating hours to 11 am until 10 pm every day including holidays.

As part of the new lunch service, the Cav’s famous salad and soup wagon will again be available from 11 am to 2 pm every day. In its new incarnation, however, the authentic prairie schooner wagon will support local and seasonal greens, vegetables, toppings and dressings prepared fresh every day.

Lunch service will also include affordable salads, pastas, and sandwiches, as well as selections of the restaurant’s dinner menu including fresh fish, seared ahi, and prime cut filet mignon and sirloin. Many of the dishes will be served vegetarian upon request. In addition, the lunch menu features a variety of breakfast burritos for late starters. On Sundays, those selections will be expanded to include other classic breakfast items as part of a table-service brunch.

“We’ve been planning this for more than a year,” said John M. Pope, CEO of Blue Sky Restaurants, which manages the restaurant. “We’re pleased to finally be able to return the much-loved salad wagon to daily use. Also, many of our friends and associates look to the Cav’s quiet, classic setting and professional service for their business dinners. Now they’ll be able to have a similar resource for lunch, too.”
